PART - II

Annual Quality Assurance Report for the Academic Year 2014-2015

Introduction

Teaching is not just a job-it is a powerful force within the community. It is a technique depends on the learning objectives, learner's abilities and students entering behaviour. Teachers should know how to plan, prepare for, and design effective curriculum, assessment of tools, and instruction strategies and use curriculum resources and technologies. They should be skilled instruction facilitators and reflective practitioners with subject knowledge and also embrace student diversity, understand the community context and to identify the needs of the individuals. They should also know how to manage and motive their students. In order to make out student-teachers with above said qualities we train our student-teachers with knowledge, moral attributes spiritual insight and love for the human kind through the application of educational technology and personality development programmes. Here we flash the triumphs of the academic year 2014 - 2015.

Academic Admission

As per the eligibility norms prescribed by the Government for the B.Ed. and M.Ed. courses. 100 students for B.Ed. 35 students for M.Ed. courses and the teacher pupil ratio insisted on by the National Council for Teacher Education 100 students for B.Ed. and 35 students for M.Ed. were admitted.

Keeping pace with the fast emerging global educational scenario, we strive to succeed and march on with the student community. The institution organised variety of curricular, co-curricular and extracurricular activities for the development of various skills among the students. Based on the action plans and decisions taken by IQAC members, regarding the institutional efficiency, we organised the programmes for improving the quality of teacher education.
