About LHJER

LHJER is a peer-reviewed professional journal intended to meet the needs of education to serve as a forum for educational and ethical issues. It publishes scientific research and review articles on social science disciplines like Educational Philosophy, Educational Sociology, Educational Psychology, Educational Technology, Educational Management and other such subjects having interdisciplinary perspective with specific relevance to education.

We invite original research papers keeping in mind with the aim and scope of LHJER. Each manuscript should include biographical information of authors followed by an abstract and the text including introduction, methodology, results, discussion, conclusion and references. Make sure that every table or figure is to be referred in the manuscript. The length of the article should not exceed 4000 words (5 to 6 pages of A4 Paper). Research manuscript should be error-free with an APA style typed in 'Times New Roman' font size 12 and single space. Hard and soft copies of articles along with subscription (DD) and copyright should be sent by post with a covering letter to the Chief Editor.

LHJER is published as a Biannual Journal in September and March. To be considered for publication in the journal, manuscripts should be submitted before the following dates: June 15 for the September issue and December 15 for the March issue. Authors and co-authors are requested to send filled in copyright forms along with the articles. Authors and co-authors should subscribe annually to receive their personal copies. The selected articles will be sent back if corrections are needed. But the rejected articles will not be sent back to the author. So the authors are advised to keep their master copy with them. Thematic articles will not be accepted for publication.
